

CICADA-ICCA Consortium
Meeting of Indigenous and Research Partners
from Canada, the USA, Australia and New Zealand

Hôtel Gouverneur Montréal
May 1-4, 2019

Programme

Wednesday May 1

8:30-9:00	Registration and coffee
9:00-9:30	Welcome, introductions and presentation of programme (Colin Scott)
9:30-11:00	Panel and discussion Protecting territories and ways of life: Indigenous governance, conservation, and land and sea management in Canada, the USA, Australia and New Zealand Co-chairs: Monica Mulrennan and Thora Herrmann Panellists: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Monica Mulrennan, Thora Herrmann and José Aylwin – “Confronting Indigenous and Colonial Ontologies at the Land-Sea Interface (Book Proposal)”2. Marama Muru-Lanning – “Vision Mātauranga, Eclectic Anthropology and the Fading Empire”3. Raymond de Silva – “Torres Strait Land and Sea Management Unit (LSMU)”4. Hilda Mosby and Annick Thomassin – “Protecting territories and ways of life in Zenadh Kes (Torres Strait), Australia”5. Rebecca Hardin – “Connecting Across Communities of Water Protectors”
11:00-11:15	Coffee
11:15-12:10	Breakout groups -- brainstorming the theme
12:10-12:30	Reconvene and report back
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-15:15	Panel and discussion Livelihoods and states of physical, cultural and spiritual well-being: strategies for food sovereignty and security, community health, and the maintenance and transmission of Indigenous languages and knowledge systems Chair: Jon Altman Panellists: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Jon Altman and Dean Yibarbuk – “The main thing is to have enough food’: Poverty and plenty in remote Indigenous Australia”, and “Ancient wisdom guiding modern protected areas management” 2. Colin Scott and Rodney Mark – The Income Security Programme for Cree hunters and trappers in James Bay 3. Katherine Scott – “Language, Culture, Wellness - Working together in Wemindji” 4. Janelle Baker and Heather Auger – “Moose Meat and Mint Tea: Bigstone Cree Nation Food Sovereignty on top of the Athabasca Oil Sands” 5. Garry John (Skype) and Sarah Moritz – “Papt Náskan Závem (always going fishing): St’át’imc Fishers’ Perspectives on Territorial Integrity” 6. David Anderson and Robert Wishart – “Hard times are coming’: architectures of cultural revival”

15:15-15:30	Coffee
15:30-17:30	Breakout groups -- brainstorming the theme
17:30-18:00	Reconvene and report back

Thursday May 2

8:30-9:00	Coffee
9:00-9:15	Welcome to day 2: preliminary and organizational remarks
9:15-10:45	Panel and discussion Indigenous rights and inter-legalities: legal dimensions in the territorial struggles of Indigenous peoples, including strategic litigation and other legal strategies Co-chairs: Kirsten Anker and Viviane Weitzner Panellists: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Viviane Weitzner – Introducing the Indigenous rights and inter-legalities axis 2. Georgia Lloyd-Smith – “RELAW – Revitalizing Indigenous Law for Land, Air and Water” 3. Aaron Mills – “Legal Pluralism and Constitutional Difference: a Colonial Dilemma” 4. Darren Thomas – “Mino-Bimaadiziwin: The assertion of Indigenous law” 5. Étienne Roy Grégoire – “Hearts and mines: “dialogue” and corporate social responsibility (CSR) in the mining sector”
10:45-11:00	Coffee

11:00-12:00	Breakout groups -- brainstorming the theme
12:00-12:30	Reconvene and report back
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-14:00	Statement: Traditional knowledge, Nature and Culture, and the Convention on Biological Diversity (John Scott)
14:00-15:15	Panel and discussion Territorial defense in extractive contexts: issues, strategies, challenges and opportunities Chair: Clint Westman Panellists: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Catherine Coumans – “When the territory to be defended is the seabed: considering issues, strategies, challenges and opportunities in the context of the emerging threat of deep sea mining.” 2. Clint Westman – “Cultural Politics of Energy: Community-Engaged Ethnographic Research in Canada’s Tar Sands” 3. Steven Nitah and Eli Enns – Indigenous perspectives on territorial defense in extractive contexts 4. Jon Altman – “Indigenous land titling and mineral extraction wars in Australia”
15:15-15:30	Coffee
15:30-17:30	Breakout groups -- brainstorming the theme
17:30-18:00	Reconvene and report back

Friday May 3

8:30-9:00	Coffee
9:00-9:15	Welcome to day 3: preliminary and organizational remarks
9:15-10:45	Panel and discussion Experiences, limitations, challenges and opportunities with protected areas and conserved territories Co-chairs: Thora Herrmann and Monica Mulrennan Panellists: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Stan Stevens – “Recognizing and Respecting ICCAs Overlapped by Protected Areas” 2. Anne-Marie André, Dolorès André, Jacques (Taby) McKenzie, Évelyne St-Onge, and Jean St-Onge – « Uapaashkuss : Gardiens des sites sacrés innus » 3. Mandy Gull – “Environmental Stewardship in Eeyou Istchee” <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Véronique Bussièrès and Monica Mulrennan – “Wemindji Protected Areas Partnership” 4. Jon Altman and Dean Yibarbuk – “Indigenous Australians reclaiming their right to care for their country” and “Securing a future for the people and environment of the Stone country” 5. Raymond de Silva and Hilda Mosby– “IPAs in Torres Strait,

	northern Australia” 6. Alanna Quock – “Establishing Indigenous Protected and Conserved Areas in Tahltan Territory” 7. Eli Enns and Faisal Moola – “Conservation as Reconciliation Partnership”
10:45-11:00	Coffee
11:00-12:00	Breakout groups -- brainstorming the theme
12:00-12:30	Reconvene and report back
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-15:15	Panel and discussion Audiovisual and mapping technologies and methodologies as tools of empowerment, decolonization, bio-cultural stewardship and territorial defense Co-chairs: Steven Schnoor and Sébastien Caquard Panellists: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Steven Schnoor – “Community Video as a Tool of Indigenous Resistance, Reimagining and Decolonization” 2. Sébastien Caquard – “Mapping Forward, Mapping Back” 3. Brian Thom – “Bringing Indigenous cartographies to shape municipal land use plans” 4. Benoit Éthier, Sylvie Poirier and Dany Chilton – « Cartographie et territorialités autochtones: La carte dans le projet d'autodétermination d'Atikamekw Nehirowisiw (Québec, Canada) » 5. Terry Mitchell, Anisa O’Nabigon and Jennifer Duncan – “Water is Life: Initial Reflections from Matawa First Nations on Indigenous water Stewardship and Community-based Monitoring”
15:15-15:30	Coffee
15:30-17:30	Breakout groups -- brainstorming the theme
17:30-18:00	Reconvene and report back
18:00-18:15	Concluding remarks (Colin Scott)

Saturday May 4

9:00-10:45	ICCA Consortium Canada/USA Regional Assembly Meeting Presentation of the ICCA Consortium and of its Members and Honorary Members in attendance Co-chairs: Aili Pyhala and Holly Jonas
10:45-11:00	Coffee
11:00-12:30	ICCA Consortium Canada/USA Regional Assembly Meeting Key topics to address as part of regionalisation process: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Defining the ‘region’, including criteria and membership 2. Regional structure, governance (Council representative) and management (Regional coordination hub) 3. Desired / planned functions and priorities of region at national, regional and global levels 4. Needs / plans for resourcing (people power, partnerships, finances, etc.)

12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-15:30	ICCA Consortium Canada/USA Regional Assembly Meeting (topics above continued)
15:30-15:45	Coffee
15:45-18:00	ICCA Consortium Canada/USA Regional Assembly Meeting (topics above continued)